“The American River drains a 1,875-square-mile watershed that ranges in elevation from 23 feet to over 10,000 feet in the rugged mountains east of Sacramento.[...] The American River—the state’s seventh largest river—is one of Northern California’s premier recreational rivers. [...] The American River Parkway, which is protected by wild and scenic river status for its 29-mile length, provides trails for bikers, hikers, birdwatchers, and others, and is an urban jewel.” The State of California’s Rivers. (2001). Trust for Public Land. (p. 87).
